Naples, June 18, N. S.

THIS Court has been ever since Easter-day at the Royal Villa of Portici, and will not return to this Capital till the 9th of next Month. The Queen advances happily in her Pregnancy, and the Prince Royal, who had been somewhat indisposed, is now perfectly well. The St. Carlo, a Man of War of 50 Guns, is fitted out, and is expected to sail To-morrow on a Cruize, towards the Adriatick Sea, against the Tripoline Rovers, who, for two or three Months past, have greatly infested those Coasts, and taken eight or ten Vessels laden with Corn and other Provisions for this City. Two Galleys and three Galliots are ordered to join the said Man of War.

Turin, June 22, N. S. Orders were sent from hence, on the 10th Instant, to Baron Leutrum, to settle with Marshal Belleisle the Cessation of Hostilities between the Piemontese and French Troops. And this Morning a Letter was received from Baron Leutrum, with an Account, that every Thing was settled to the mutual Satisfaction of all Parties: That in the Ponente the Borders of the River Roia were to be the Limits on both Sides; to the French, from Ventimiglia to Sospel, and to the Piemontese, from Dolceaqua to Breille; and that with regard to the Posts in the high Mountains, each Party should continue in those they were possessed of. Marshal Belleisle has also proposed, that for easing the Country and the Troops on both Sides, he would withdraw several Battalions to the other Side the Var, if Baron Leutrum would send back a proportionable Number of his into Piemont, which his Sardinian Majesty has approved. Marshal Belleisle has sent Orders to M. Mirepoix immediately to publish the Armistice on the Frontiers of Dauphiné; and the same will be done this Day by the King of Sardinia's Officers on that Side. The Duke de Richelieu is likewise instructed to agree with the Governor of Savona on proper Limits between that Town and Genoa; and it is not question'd, but the like Measures will be taken with regard to the Body commanded by M. de Nadasti towards the Bochetta, Gavi and Novi. We are inform'd that the Suspension of Arms, between the Imperial and French Troops, was likewise publish'd in the Levante on the 15th Instant.

July 1, 1748.

Notice is hereby given, that the Prize Money due to the Officers and Company of his Majesty's Ship Advice, Richard Haddock, Esq; Captain, will be paid on board the said Ship at Plymouth, on Thursday the 21st Instant, for the French Domingo Ships taken Anno 1747; and that the Recalls will commence the first Wednesday in September next, and be continued Monthly for the Space of Three Years, at the Victualling Office Coffee-house on Tower-hill.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of his Majesty's Ship South Sea Castle, that on Wednesday the 13th Instant, betwixt the Hours of Nine and Three, they will be paid their respective Shares of the Prize Royal Prophet and her Cargo, and of the Bounty and Salvage for retaking the Alexander Privateer, and also of the Salvage for retaking the Benson Brigantine, at the Lemon-tree in Chandois-street, Covent-Garden. The Recalls to be in the Forenoon on every first Wednesday of every Month, during the Time limited by the Act, at Mr. Andrew Douglass's, Merchant, Vine-street, Piccadilly. The Share of the Solebay Man of War of the above Prizes will be paid at Kinsale.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of his Majesty's Ship Eagle, that they may receive their respective Shares of Prize Money due on the St. Domingo Prizes, taken in Company with the Kent, and seven others of his Majesty's Ships; and also the Produce of the Hull and Bounty of the Mary Magdalen Privateer, taken in Company with the Hampton Court, Centurion, and Lion, on board the Eagle at Plymouth, on Monday the 18th of July Instant, (if the Ship be then returned from her Cruize) and all such Shares as shall not then be demanded, will be paid at Mr. Magnus's, in Crown Court, Broad-street, the first Thursday in every Month for three Years to come. N. B. The Recall to be the first Thursday in September.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of his Majesty's Ship Bridgwater, that were on board at the taking the La Jason, and La Tourterelle French Privateers, that the Bounty Money for the said Prizes will be paid on Tuesday the 19th Instant, at the Dolphin Tavern in Tower-street, and at the same Time will be recalled the following Prizes paid in Ireland, viz.
